

Welcome to Angoulême !!!

On the 28th september 2019, at 7:14 pm, the Australian correspondants arrived in Angoulême's train station. Before their arrival, we came at 6:45 pm to have the last information about their journey in our town. After 26 hours by plane and 3 hours by train, they finally arrived in our city under applauses from the french families. They were really tired so we went as fast as possible in our respective house.

For our part, our correspondants met our family and our pets around pizzas and the movie "Back to the future". They, of course, settled in their new room, and then went to bed.

The hosting had started...
